

Multaka: Museums as Meeting Points

This NEMO Learning Exchange will be hosted by Sarah Fortmann-Hijazi and Salma Jreige, project management team of "Multaka: Meetingpoint Museum", with team members of the Multaka project Berlin as well as the partners of the International Multaka Network. It is designed as an introduction to the concept of national and international outreach initiatives in museums using the example of Multaka. The learning exchange series will offer a deeper insight into the diverse facets of this project. It will provide practical tools and will introduce valuable ideas that can contribute to implementing interactive projects like Multaka within museums. The full programme includes three two-hour sessions providing opportunities to learn and discuss with international colleagues.

Apply until MONDAY 14 JUNE 2021 by sending the following to office@ne-mo.org

- CV
- 1 paragraph motivating your participation and your expectations, including a declaration of your NEMO membership or NEMO member sponsor.

The selection process (of up to 16 members) will be carried out by NEMO's executive board and the hosting organisation. The selection of the participants receiving the grant is made according to their profile and how often the organisation they are coming from has benefitted from NEMO's grants already. Fee of 100 Euro for non-members.

Workshop content includes:

- Introduction to "Multaka: Meetingpoint Museum"
- Interactive and intercultural exercises and techniques
- Multaka Online-Session in the German Historical Museums' exhibition "Report from Exile – Photographs by Fred Stein"
- Presentation of outreach initiatives and various program formats
- Multaka International Network: presentation of our members and their projects
- Ways to get involved

Dates:

17, 23 & 30 June 2021

Times:

10:00 – 12:00 CEST

Location:

Online

Facilitated by:

Sarah Fortmann-Hijazi and Salma Jreige

Deadline to apply:

Monday 14 June 2021

